Paula Johns
in “Woman Chatter”

*A Musical Tribute to the “Diva herself”
“Miss Carmen McRae”*

This show has been performed throughout the tri-state area in several jazz rooms & nightclubs. Due to the timeless nature of Carmen’s words and the choice of tunes she chose to perform, this tribute brings an entertaining & extremely musical presentation to any room. If you were fortunate enough to be of the “greatest generation”, this show will bring back some interesting memories of the ups & downs in Carmen’s life.

As with all elegant Cabarets, this performance is presented using live musicians of the highest caliber and sophistication. The stories and antidotes shared will make you laugh or cry...but you’re sure to enjoy the ride!

For further details, a promotional package is available at www.paulajohns.com. There you can read all about Paula, here her sing, and watch a performance!

We are looking forward to performing in your jazz room, nightclub or Cabaret Lounge!
